

FISCAL NOTE

HB 92 - SB 1359

March 30, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL: Provides for a split confinement for qualified defendants in deferral of further proceedings whereby the court may sentence a qualified defendant to serve a portion of the sentence in continuous confinement and then defer further proceedings and place the defendant on probation.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - $43,600

Estimate assumes 10% of 334 or 33 persons receiving deferral of further proceedings for felony offenses will be confined to jail for an average of 30 days at $44 per day. When a deferral of further proceedings is given and no conviction entered, the costs of confinement remains with local government.
